Center for Advanced Maternal, Fetal & Newborn Care

Annual Volume:
- Family Birthing Center
  - Inpatient admissions: 3,041
  - Patient days: 7,459
  - Births: 2,847
- Neonatal Intensive Care Unit
  - Annual admissions: 409
  - Patient days: 6,903

Center for Advanced Maternal, Fetal & Newborn Care:
- Perinatology Clinic
  - Three ultrasound rooms with telehealth capabilities
  - Inpatient and outpatient perinatologist consultation and management
  - Level II ultrasound, genetic counseling, amniocentesis testing and nuchal translucency screening
- Family Birthing Center
  - Birthing center with spacious suites, large private bathrooms and air-jetted tubs
  - The center contains a 6-bed private room OB triage unit, 11 labor/delivery/recovery (LDR) beds, 6 antepartum (high risk) beds, 27 postpartum (mother/baby) beds and 2 operating rooms with anesthetic services
  - Provides care for low- and high-risk births
  - 24/7 OB hospitalist program and care coordination for complex cases
  - Breastfeeding and perinatal support
- Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (Level II and III)
  - 30-bed unit with state-of-the-art private and semi-private rooms in a highly specialized, yet intimate environment
  - 24/7 in-house coverage by neonatologists, neonatal nurse practitioners, specialized nurses and respiratory therapists
  - Multidisciplinary care management team with daily rounding that includes parents
  - Air and ground neonatal transport services
- Education for clinics, hospitals, women and families

Data is for July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2017