Hospital Medicine Section – Intensive Care/Surgical Care Units

Annual Volume:
- Admissions:
  - Surgical Care Unit 1: 3,482
  - Surgical Care Unit 2: 1,489
  - Intensive Care Unit: 1,866
- Patient days:
  - Surgical Care Unit 1: 11,649
  - Surgical Care Unit 2: 6,744
  - Intensive Care Unit: 7,665

Surgical Care Units:
- Surgical Care Unit 1: 38 beds
- Surgical Care Unit 2: 14 beds
- Support common inpatient and outpatient surgical procedures with emphasis on minimally invasive surgery in many surgical specialties including general surgery, bariatrics, gynecology, urology and otolaryngology
- 11 cardiac remote monitors for patients who do not require Telemetry placement
- 58% of Surgical Care Unit 1 staff and Surgical Care Unit 2 staff are nationally certified in a specialty
- Metabolic and Bariatric Surgery Accreditation and Quality Improvement Program (MBSAQIP) Accreditation, 2016-2019

Surgical Progressive Care Unit:
- 9 beds
- For patients requiring a higher level of care and monitoring
- Intermediate care, which includes cardiac monitoring and a higher nurse:patient ratio

Intensive Care Unit:
- 28 beds
- Silver Beacon Award by the American Association of Critical Care Nurses 2016-2019
- State-of-the-art ICU featuring large rooms with column medical gases, cardiac monitors, bronchoscopy room and family space in each room
- For critically ill medical/surgical patients
- Multidisciplinary team including dedicated intensivists (physicians board certified in critical care medicine)
- Evidence-based bundles of care including prevention of ventilator associated pneumonia, delirium management and treatment of sepsis, hyperglycemia, sedation, early mobility and stroke care
- Electronic medical record which interfaces with cardiac monitors and ventilators
- Nationally recognized for low hospital acquired infection rates, sepsis management, delirium prevention and care, early mobility, and cardiopulmonary arrest management
- 42% of direct care RNs are nationally certified in a specialty

Data is for July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2017